Black Ice Software - April 28, 2016

Printer Driver version 14.58 is released!

New option to overwrite existing documents, new Content Based Email Sending feature, and Agent Printer configuration for all users!

Black Ice Software has released the Printer Driver version 14.58 with a new option to overwrite existing documents, if documents with the same name already exist. This new option helps users to manage the output document names more efficiently.

Version 14.58 of the Black Ice Printer Driver also includes a new Content Based Email Sending feature to extract specific information from the printed documents (for example: email subject or email body). The Printer Driver will then send the email based on the extracted information.

The End-User Printer Drivers also include an improved Printer Manager with new features to configure Agent Printers for All Users on the computer. This new capability provides much better centralized administration of the Agent Printers, and helps Administrators to change the already existing Agent Printer settings for all users very easily and quickly by performing only a few clicks on the user interface.

The complete list of improvements in the latest Black Ice Printer Driver include the following:

- Added option to overwrite existing documents
- Added option to the Printer Manager to change Agent Printer settings for all users
- Added content based email sending feature
- Updated manuals
