Black Ice Software - October 15, 2013

XML Printer Driver 13.78 has been released!

New improved editable XML file format

The Black Ice Software has released Printer Driver version 13.78 with improved XML file format printing.

The improved XML output format in the latest Black Ice Printer Driver converts the printed document into a structured, easy-to-read and editable XML file. The new and improved XML output format is especially usefull if mass amounts of data processing is needed, or to extract text, and information into an editable file format from applications where exports don't allowed.
