Black Ice Software - August 4, 2016

Printer Driver version 14.69 is released!

Stability improvements for printing using RAW data type and major improvements in the API/Resource Toolkit!

Black Ice Software has released version 14.69 of the Printer Driver. This version includes major stability improvements, for printing large documents with multiple number of pages using RAW data type on the system.

What are the advantages of using RAW datatype?

When using RAW datatype, one can configure the printing to bypass the Print Spooler Service on the system, and print directly to the Black Ice Printer Driver. Bypassing the spooler can significantly speed up the printing.
